Your gateway to ... golf

... in the South West of Ireland

The rugged Atlantic coast of Kerry has the town of Killarney at its heart. This majestic and scenic town is an ideal base for your South West of Ireland golf break.

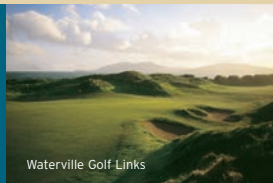

Parkland courses have been carved out of mountain side through valleys alongside rivers and lakes and in tree lined old country estates. Our links courses are special! The sound of sea crashing off rocks and the salty taste of sea spray are constant companions.
